

CASH Award of Excellence

The Canadian Association for Sport Heritage has established an Award of Excellence to recognize and celebrate the achievements of our members.

Qualifications

- > Organizational members of CASH can submit one entry in any of the categories.
- > Eligible projects must have been completed between January 1 - December 31, 2021.
- > Submissions should be sent electronically, ideally in one PDF, to cansportheritage@gmail.com.
- > In 2022 only one award across all four categories will be presented with the possibility of expanding this number in future years.
- > Submission deadline May 4, 2022.

Point System and Judging

Submissions will be reviewed by the CASH Awards Committee using the point system below.

Impact to community and/or Hall of Fame – 50%

Execution and Success of Project – 35%

Design of communication or other materials supporting project or design of project itself – 15%

CASH Award of Excellence

The winner will receive a physical CASH Award of Excellence as a tangible representation of your achievement. Winning an award is a great reason to contact your local media outlets and share your successes with your community. They can be useful for future grant applications in demonstrating a track record of excellent work and raise awareness about your Hall of Fame. Additionally, winners will be highlighted in the CASH newsletter, website, and social media. Learn about our inaugural winners here.
